MARK TWAIN—JENKINS AND WILHELMSHOHE.

[A remarkable feature of the present European war is the extraordinary candor of the prominent persons who have been engaged in it. From Bismarck to Napoleon, from Bazaine to William, the dignitaries have manifested a miraculous alacrity in the frank avowal of their intentions, plans, and projects, and have seemed happiest when making a clean breast of it to some newspaper correspondent. As a fair illustration of their amiable candor, I have condensed the following specimen from the New York Herald correspondent's interview with Napolean.—CARL BYRD.]

As I was ushered into the reception-room at Wilhelmshohe the Emperor arose (from a "luxurious fauteuil," of course,) and advanced to welcome me, with extended hand and an air of extreme gratification, that put me perfectly at ease.

"Bung zhoo, sire," said I, giving his hand a cordial shake. With the exquisite tact of a practiced courtier, his Majesty seized the occasion to pay me (and my countrymen) one of his neatest compliments. He said: "Perhaps we had better conduct our conversation in English. The fact is, you speak French with an accent that really shames us Parisians. I've often remarked this trait in accomplished Americans, and wondered at it." The Emperor's remarks were so unexpectedly flattering that it took my breath away for a moment; but under cover of a profound bow I recovered my fluency, and observed: "Such a compliment from your Majesty in happier days would have brought the entire American nobility to your feet." My chased each other silently down his majestic and imperial purple nose, and dripped in imperial sorrow from the waxed ends of its moustache, might have moved a heart of stone with a little assistance.

Surely, thought I, the Emperor who can thus weep at his own calamities cannot be utterly heartless.

When the Emperor had recovered his composure, and had his nose blowed by the proper officer, I opened the conversation in a way that I thought least likely to offend his delicacy. I told him it was currently reported that he had feathered his nest pretty well while Emperor, and I should take it as a special favor if he would tell me how much he had really stolen. In America, I told him, public men were expected to lay by something for a rainy day, and it would rather enhance our respect for him to be assured that he had exercised a like justifiable prudence. He replied: "My! I respect the Herald too much to deceive it. I have made a nice little thing of the whole, and my chamberlain shall provide you with an inventory of all that I have gobbled." I asked him if he had any property in New York. "Well," said he, "I thought I owned the New York World a few months ago; but since the Sedan affair it has gone back on me." "Your Majesty was accused of treachery at Sedan. Was you really a traitor?" "Frankly," said he, "I think if I had tried I might have died at the head of the army, instead of surrendering. If this be treason, make the most of it." I said, "Sire, we Americans are very frank and straightforward, especially in answering questions. Now you needn't answer if you feel the least bit squeamish about it; but I should like to know, I really would be pleased to know, whether your father was a Bonaparte or a Dutch Admiral, as some have intimated?" His Majesty with great cheerfulness replied, "So would I."

The engaging freedom with which his Majesty unbosomed himself emboldened me to pursue my inquiries, and our conversation became almost confidential. I asked him if Eugenie was ever jealous. He replied, "Not as Empress; but as Mrs. Napoleon I have sometimes thought she was inclined to be a little too strict with me." I said, "Can you lay your hand on your heart, sire, and solemnly assure the Herald that you never gave her cause for jealousy?" The Emperor (musingly): "You are right." At this point the Emperor seemed a good deal cut up, and sighed profoundly. Instead of answering my question explicitly, I was sorry to see him put both hands in his pocket instead of on his heart.

I told him he might deem me rather inquisitive, but if he knew how deeply interested we Americans were in such scandal, I was sure he would tell me all about the Bellanger intrigues referred to in his private correspondence, which was discovered at the Tuileries, after the flight of the Empress. He said: "My friend, I am deeply touched by your friendly solicitude about my affairs. Your curiosity is tempered by an exquisite delicacy that disarms it of any power to offend. That correspondence I grieve to confess—" The announcement of a messenger from Berlin unhappily interrupted the Emperor's remarks at this point. I intended to have gradually drawn Napoleon to speak about private and pesonal topics, and should have succeeded but for that intrruption.

As I was about to withdraw, the Emperor embraced me with every mark of esteem.

INFLUENCE OF CHRISTIAN CHARACTER.

Even in the busiest town, and amid the most absorbing pursuits, the hearts of men turn with an instinctive homage towards those who have brought down and illustrated in their lives the purest precepts of our faith. The man who lives in accordance with them, who carries them with him wherever he goes, in meekness and simplicity, bears also with him a weight of authority which silently disarms the shallow reasoning of Sadducean selfishness and unbelief.

The life of a true woman reveals to us sources of influence which the world can never give. She may be endowed with a charm of personal loveliness which adds to the attractiveness of her virtues; she may have advantages, as wealth and position, which give her an opportunity that all cannot have to show her disinterested regard for others; she may have qualities of mind and heart which peculiarly fit her to be the pride and joy of her friends. But these are not the secret of the power which goes from her, through which she creates around her an atmosphere of gentle benignant affections, while she fills each day the perhaps unacknowledged and unrecognized offices of kindness that make her home a centre of Christian charities and graces. Her life while it is with us is a perpetual benison, and when she is not, it is still in ever-widening and deepening circles, diffusing itself through the hearts of those she loved, and through the community in which she lived. There is no more beneficent or more powerful influence than the living presence, or when that is withdrawn, the silent memory of those who are thus the dearest exemplars that we have known of the spirit and the religion of Jesus.—Dr. Morison.

WHAT THE CITY PRESS SAY:

PRIZE DRAWING.—Quite a crowd assembled at the Theatre yesterday noon, to witness the Grand Drawing of the North Carolina Beneficial Association. There were 100 prizes in all, and little rolls of paper separating these were placed in a wheel on one side, while the tickets were in another wheel opposite to the former. Between the two was a table, at which sat the Judges and Mr. John London, Commissioner. The wheels were made with glass sides, so that everything within them could be seen and were securely locked, until the drawing began. This was done by means of two little boys, who were securely blindfolded, one drawing a number from one of the wheels and the other the prize to correspond with it. There is no question but that the drawing was done in a perfectly fair and just manner.—Wilmington Daily Journal, Dec. 2nd.

THE GRAND DRAWING YESTERDAY.—The grand single number distribution of the N. C. Beneficial Association, which took place at the Theatre yesterday, at 3 o'clock, was the all-absorbing theme during the day. The drawing took place in public, a committee having been selected from the audience to act with the Commissioner in keeping an account of the same and to see that it was conducted fairly. Quite a respectable crowd was present to witness the drawing. The following numbers drew the principal prizes: No. 2110, $5,000; No. 6000, $2,500; No. 5776, $2,000; No. 2842, $1,000; No. 1407, $2,000; No. 4128, $1,000; No. 1488, $500. The Certificate No. 1407 was sold to a citizen of Wilmington, N. C.—Wilmington Morning Star, Dec. 2nd.

OXFORD HIGH SCHOOL,

Oxford, N. C.

J. H. HORNER, } Associate Principals.
R. H. GRAVES, }

THIS SCHOOL which has been for the last twenty years under the exclusive charge of J. H. Horner, will henceforth be conducted under the joint supervision of the above principals, with competent assistant instructors in every department.

The course of study has been extended, and boys will be thoroughly fitted for advanced classes in College, especial reference being had to the qualifications requisite to admission into the Senior classes in the University of Virginia, of Washington Lee University. The latter of which has again conferred upon the school the honor of a scholarship in that Institution.

A regular course of study in Natural Sciences, Commercial Science and the Modern Languages has been added to the school for those students, who, desiring to acquire only a complete business education may wish to substitute these studies for Latin and Greek.

No pains will be spared to render the instructions in the school efficient and to furnish to students the most ample facilities for thorough preparation for College or for the acquisition of a good business education; and the principals flatter themselves that their long and successful career as teachers is a sufficient guarantee that the school will be in all respects worthy the public confidence and support.

The Spring Session will open the second Monday in January.

Circulars containing terms and full particulars furnished upon application to either of the principals.

IMPEACHMENT.

By reference to proceedings of the House, Wednesday, it will be seen that a resolution passed that body by a vote of 60 to 43, to appoint a Special Committee to draw up articles of impeachment against Gov. W. W. Holden.

In this the House has but carried out the requirements of the people. They demand that Gov. Holden be impeached of high crimes and misdemeanors in office, for his violation of the Constitution, his arbitrary outrage of liberty by the arrest of citizens without due process of law, his illegal use of armed forces, and the many and frequent other misdemeanors which will be established on trial.

The only argument of the opposition was, that members of a certain party were constantly whipped and murdered by bands of mid-night marauders who were unknown, and could not be reached by the law.

Admit, for the sake of the argument, that violations of law did take place by unknown parties; one illegal act does not justify another, and the resort to illegal and unauthorized measures, to arrest parties or ferret out criminals, on the part of the Governor, is as reprehensible and punishable as any other species of violation. The Constitution and the laws must be sustained, defended and properly executed. When there are violations by any party whatsoever, let those who do so be tried and punished according to law. If there is authority, to whom is committed the maintenance and execution of the Constitution and laws for the benefit of the whole, must be permitted to violate and set them aside for the punishment of individual cases of crime, or criminals, to what extent may not this liberty be carried? If the laws can be violated for one thing, cannot they be violated for another? If laws can be violated by one, can they not be by others? And if the Governor deprives a single individual of his liberty, without fulfilling the very letter of the law, is he not just as amenable as one who burns a barn, or steals a horse? Is not the principle of law violated all the same in the one as in the other?

The members of the House are acting as becomes the Representatives of a Constitution-loving and law-abiding people. As the people have, in their sovereign capacity, established laws for their government, and submit to the same, so must those entrusted with their execution be held strictly accountable for any deviation from the plain and unmistakable path laid down for them to follow. We are satisfied that the representatives of the people will not fail in the duty required of them in this matter.

SENATOR LEHMAN AND THE CODE COMMISSION.

Upon the organization of the Senate, the Code Commission voluntarily sent into that body a report; but before the reading of it was completed, objection was made, and, upon motion, the report was laid upon the table. It was stated at the time, by Senator Love of Jackson, that it was a notorious fact that the last Legislature abolished the Code Commission, but by some means the bill was lost; and he was opposed to recognizing the Code Commission so much as to formally receive and consider a report from it.

On last Wednesday the Commission impertinently sent in another report, but it was treated as the first, by being laid upon the table. Whereupon, Mr. Lehman introduced a bill prepared by the Code Commission, amending the Code of Civil Procedure, which was the same as the bill just rejected. Mr. Warren objected to it as being the same bill, and characterized the manner of its introduction as a subterfuge.

This action of Mr. Lehman, in the very face of the action of the Senate but a few moments before, was an indignity and should have been treated accordingly. This Code Commission is an outrageous imposition upon the people, and the doing away with the bill abolishing it was a fraud which should be ferreted out, and the parties thereto severely punished. And for the Commission to continue to intrude itself upon the Senate after the treatment it first received at the hands of that body is downright impertinence; and for a Senator to permit himself to be used by it, and to claim as his right as a Senator to adopt a bill as his own and force it upon the Senate after it had been summarily rejected by that body, is undignified, to say the least, and shows a great want of conventional courtesy.

The action of the Senate in rejecting it again was a just rebuke to Mr. Lehman, and we hope he will not forget it soon.

BOGARY.—C. C. Bowen, a Radical lunimary who has been carpet bagging in South Carolina for the last two years, and member of Congress from the Charleston district, was indicted on Tuesday last for bigamy and the next day gave bail in a bond of $5,000 to answer the charge.

CANDIDATES IN ALAMANCE AND CASWELL.

We were mistaken yesterday, in our announcement of the names of the candidates in Alamance, or rather got the right names in the wrong place. It is Jas. A. Graham, Esq., who was nominated for the Senate for Alamance and Guilford, and Col. McAlister, for the House of Representatives in Alamance. This transposition of names, however, does not affect anything we said as to the gentlemen or the appropriateness of the nominations. Either gentleman named is qualified for either place; both are worthy of the confidence of the people and both will make good and faithful representatives.

The candidates for Caswell are, Livingston Brown, Esq., for the Senate, and Col. E. B. Withers and Wm. Taylor, Jr., for the House of Representatives. These gentlemen are well and favorably known, and we have no doubt they will be able to draw out the full Democratic-Conservative vote of the county and will be elected.

If the Democrats and Conservatives of Alamance and Caswell don't turn out and vote for their candidates, and do all that can honorably be done for their election, they will deserve to have Kirk and Burgin with their Tennessee cut-throats sent back to reconstruct them over again. Above all things watch the polls, and see that squads of illegal voters are not imported into the two counties to help out the Radical candidates. In Alamance especially, we look for this to be attempted, and it behooves our friends in that county and Guilford especially, to be on the alert and gather such evidence as will counteract the effects of the frauds, should they be perpetrated, as have been done heretofore.

The time is short, but sufficient, if all will work faithfully, to have full notice of the election given throughout both counties, and a proper organization for each voting precinct, to watch for and prevent all fraud and illegal votes, as far as possible, and to be fully prepared to prove them if they cannot be prevented.

JOHN POOL FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

A correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch, at Elizabeth City, says:

"On dit: the friends of Senator Pool here and in Washington city expect to see his name, in the next campaign, on the Republican ticket for the Vice Presidency.

John Pool for Vice President! This is the heighth of presumption and impudence. This American people will not very readily place a man in the next highest position within their gift, who acknowledges that he took a solemn oath to support a government when his real purpose was to embarrass it. An acknowledged perjurer need never expect to receive the support of honest people, for anything, and the masses of the American people are honest.

If it becomes known that John Pool wants to be Vice President, what will Gov. Holden do? It is generally believed that Holden inaugurated his militia movements with an eye to the Vice Presidency. That he would succeed in his attempts to crush out freedom in North Carolina by the bayonet, and secure the success of his party, last summer, was to him very certain. And if he succeeded, his cup of glory would be full, and he several necks ahead of any present Radical candidate for the Vice Presidential nomination in 1872.

But he was wanting in knowledge of our people. He failed—he and his militia were routed, horse, foot and dragoons. And he is now to be brought at the bar of the Senate upon charges, preferred by the people of the State, for high crimes and misdemeanors in office. Holden stock for national promotion, therefore, is very much below par. John Pool was one of the "powers behind the throne" which pushed forward this militia movement. It is said he originated the scheme, but left it to Holden to execute. Of course the responsibility of the failure does not fall upon him. But, if Holden depended upon his success, to make himself Vice President, and failed, will he now permit John Pool to shift all the blame from himself, and have "his name on the Republican ticket for Vice President in the next campaign? We believe not. If Pool attempts it we believe that there will be such a tale unfolded as will very much embarrass the Senator, if not entirely defeat his pretty little plan. Stick to him Governor, he was one of your counsellors and advisors who led you into trouble—make him sink with you. If you do not, the people will.

WILLIAM, made a courteous but urgent demand upon the Parisian authorities on the 10th inst., for the surrender of that city, but they very politely but positively declined. As both armies have been completely annihilated by each other recently, according to reports from "our perfectly reliable correspondents," of course such a demand, in the face of these events, could not result otherwise. We are neither surprised at the demand or the refusal.

If William will but advance his German armies by way of Dutch Gap Canal, and send Butler and Porter, with a powder-ship to blow up Fort Fisher, we must think that the capitulation of Paris will be an unavoidable result. We will suggest that he exercise every degree of magnanimity, and every want of avariciousness in fitting out the expedition. He will then be saved the mortifying necessity of "losing all faith in human nature."

The Statesville American commends the following to the Standard:

We learn that a low radical in the upper portion of Iredell, by the name of Russ Shoemaker, who ill-treated his family and beat his wife unmercifully at times, was taken out and lynched, a few nights ago, by some of his neighbors, also radicals, and whom he recognized.

The only means thought of by the Republican leaders to escape from the dilemma into which their mismanagement of public affairs, and robberies of the people and the treasury, and innumerable crimes and peccadilloes have brought them, into, is to change the name of their party and thus endeavor to shift the responsibility. But

"Like the vase in which roses have once been distilled—
You may break, you may ruin the vase, if you will,
But the scent of the roses will hang round it still."

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

THURSDAY, Dec. 15th, 1870.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Henry Eppes, (col.) Senator from Halifax.

Mr. Jones moved to take from the calendar a bill declaratory of the meaning of the act entitled an act to repeal certain acts passed at the session of 1868-'69, making appropriations to Railroad Companies, ratified on the 9th of March, 1870, and for other purposes.

Mr. Jones said his motive in making the motion was that he should introduce a bill upon the same subject, and he desired that both of them should be referred to the Committee on the Judiciary. The motion was lost.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Bill regulating the salaries and fees of State officers. [This bill provides that the Governor shall have $5,000 per annum until the 1st of Jan. 1873. He shall be allowed a Private Secretary at a salary of $500 per year, who may receive the fees of said office as prescribed in section 12, chapter 102, and no other. He shall also be allowed one messenger at a salary of $300 per year.

Treasurer.—His annual salary shall be $3,000, until Jan. 1st, 1873. He shall be allowed a chief Clerk with a salary of $1,500 per year. He shall also be allowed an assistant Clerk with an annual salary of $750.

Secretary of State.—His annual salary shall be $1,000 and fees of his office as prescribed in section 13, chapter 102 of the Revised Code and no other. He shall be allowed one Clerk with a salary of $500 per year.

Superintendent of Public Works.—His annual salary shall be $50. He shall not be allowed any sum for travelling expenses, or clerical assistance.

Superintendent of Public Instruction.—His annual salary shall be $50, and shall not be allowed any sum for travelling expenses, nor shall he be allowed to appoint any assistant neither shall any other person make any such appointment.

Attorney General.—His annual salary shall be $1,000 and the fees prescribed by law, exce. t those given by section 5, chapter 102 o. the Revised Code.

Adjutant General.—His salary shall be $300 per year. He shall not be allowed any travelling or other expenses or any clerical assistance at the expense of the State.

Reporter of the Decisions of the Supreme Court.—His salary shall be the same pay, and have the same rights as are given by section 6, chapter 102 of the Revised Code. He shall receive no other or further remuneration.

[The bill goes further and provides for salaries and fees of county officers, but we have no space to publish it to-day. We shall publish in full when passed.]

Mr. Olds moved to amend section 6, (which regulates the salary of the Superintendent of Public Instruction,) by striking out $50 and insert $2,000.

Mr. Troy moved to amend the amendment by inserting $1500 instead of $2,000.

This question was discussed at length, finally the previous question was called and sustained.

The President decided that the question was devisable, the motion to strike out prevailed by a vote of 32 to 12.

Mr. Troy's amendment to the amendment was adopted by a vote of 24 to 20, and $1500 was inserted in the section by a vote of 24 to 21.

Mr. Olds moved to amend the same section by allowing the said Superintendent a necessary sum for travelling expenses and clerical services.

The President ruled the amendment out of order.

Mr. Love moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the sum of $1500 was fixed in the 6th section, and moved to postpone that motion until to-morrow at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Graham moved to postpone the further consideration of the whole bill until to-morrow at 12 o'clock, which prevailed.

COMMITTEE FROM THE HOUSE.

The doorkeeper announced the arrival of a committee from the House, composed of Messrs. Welch, Sparrow, and Strudwick.

The committee were invited forward in front of the bar of the Senate, and Mr. Welch said:

MR. PRESIDENT AND SENATORS: I would display the most callous indifference, the most remarkable and unnatural absence of sensibility, if, in appearing at the bar of the Senate of North Carolina, in obedience to the commands of the Representatives of the people, charged as I am with the performance of so solemn a duty—that of impeaching the Governor of a great Commonwealth—were I not oppressed with the awful responsibility of the situation; but, sustained by a consciousness of right, and calling to the aid of my inexperience the experience of one of England's purest patriots and most distinguished statesmen, I proceed with more confidence than I would otherwise have.

Permit me, Mr. President and Senators, to adopt almost the very language used by him under circumstances somewhat similar, and to ask, "What is it we want here to a great act of national justice? Do we want a cause? "You have the cause of an oppressed people." "Do you want a criminal?" "Where was there so much iniquity ever laid to the charge of any one?"

Senators, "is it a prosecutor you want?" You have before you the Representatives of the people of North Carolina. "Do you want a tribunal?" Senators, "No example of antiquity—nothing in the modern world—nothing in the range of human imagination can supply us with a tribunal superior to this." "Therefore it is ordered by the Representatives of the people of this Commonwealth, that "I impeach" William W. Holden, Governor of North Carolina of high crimes and misdemeanors in office."

I impeach him in the name of the Representatives of North Carolina, "whose national character he has dishonored."

"I impeach him in the name of all the people "of North Carolina" whose laws, rights and liberties he has subverted."

I impeach him in the name and by virtue of those eternal laws of justice which he has violated. I impeach him "in the name of human nature itself which he has cruelly outraged, injured and oppressed" and in the name of the Representatives of the people do demand that the Senate organize a high court of impeachment and take order that William W. Holden appear at its bar to answer the particular charges which the House of Representatives will in due time exhibit and make good by proper testimony, and that the Senate do make such other and further orders in the premises as shall s em to them best calculated to bring this trial to a just and speedy termination; and in conclusion the House of Representatives, through us, most heartily pray that God, the God of eternal justice may protect the right.

The President, Mr. Caldwell, said he was absent when the Committee arrived, consequently did not know what was done on their entrance to the Senate Chamber, and asked the following query to wit:

Have articles of impeachment been drawn up and presented?

Mr. Welch replied that such articles would be drawn and presented in due time.

The President then read the following section of the law relating to Proceedings of Impeachment, to-wit:

SEC. 3. EXHIBITION OF ARTICLES.

All impeachments must be delivered by the House of Representatives to the presiding officer of the Senate, who shall thereupon cause proclamation to be made in the following words, viz: "All persons are commanded to keep silence on pain of imprisonment, while the House of Representatives is exhibiting to the Senate of North Carolina, Articles of Impeachment against the Governor." After which the articles shall be exhibited, and then the presiding officer of the Senate shall inform the House of Representatives that the Senate will take proper order on the subject of Impeachment,—of which due notice shall be given to the House of Representatives."

Mr. Warren moved that the Committee be informed that the message is received, will be considered, and the Senate will take proper order thereon, which prevailed.

The President so informed the Committee, and they retired.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Bill to be entitled an act concerning a Convention of the people.

On motion of Mr. Warren, the Senate agreed to consider the bill by sections.

The Senate considered and perfected Sections 1, 2, 3 and 4. Pending the consideration of Section 5,

Mr. Troy moved that when the Senate adjourn it adjourn to meet again at 7:15 o'clock to-night, which prevailed.

On motion of Mr. Robbins of Rowan, the further consideration of the bill was postponed until to-night at 7:15.

Mr. Warren, by leave, introduced the following resolution, to-wit:

Resolved, That the message of the House of Representatives, relating to the impeachment of W. W. Holden, Governor of North Carolina, be referred to a select committee of five, to be chosen by the Senate, to consider and report thereon; and that said committee be instructed to prepare and report rules of practice and proceedure for the Senate, when sitting for the trial of impeachment, which was adopted.

On motion the Senate adjourned.

Holden to answer to said impeachment.

Resolved, That a Committee of seven be appointed to prepare and report articles of impeachment against William W. Holden, Governor of the State of North Carolina, with power to send for persons, papers and records, and to take testimony under oath.

On motion of Mr. Sparrow, the rules were suspended and his resolutions appointing a Committee of 3 to proceed to the Senate and inform that body of the action of the House in regard to impeachment, and also raising a Committee of 7 to draft articles of impeachment, were taken up.

The resolutions were adopted by the following ballot:

Holden, Governor of North Carolina, of high crimes and misdemeanors in office.

The Committee thus appointed proceeded to the Senate Chamber, to discharge the duty imposed on them.

On motion of Sykes, col., the rules were suspended, and the bill allowing per diem to Mr. Mitchell, the unsuccessful contestant for a seat in the House from Hurtford, was taken up and passed its several readings.

Mr. Robinson, from the Committee on Enrollment, reported that the resolution impeaching W. W. Holden, had been correctly enrolled.

The committee appointed to proceed to the Senate and demand the impeachment of Governor Holden, returned and proceeded to the bar of the House.

Mr. Sparrow, in behalf of the Committee said:

MR. SPEAKER: In obedience to the order of the House, we proceeded to the bar of the Senate, and in the name of this body and of all the good people of the State of North Carolina, we impeached, as we were directed to do, William W. Holden, Governor of North Carolina, of high crimes and misdemeanors, and we demanded that the Senate should take order to make him appear before that body to answer for the same, and announced that the House would soon present articles of impeachment and make good the same. To which the response was:

"The Senate has received the message, and will consider the same, and will take proper action thereon."

On motion of Mr. Phillips, the rules were suspended and the joint Senate resolution taking a recess from the 22d of December, 1870, to January 11th, 1871, was taken up.

Mr. Sparrow moved to table the resolution for the present, as grave and important matter should be settled before a resolution of this character should be passed by this House.

The motion to lay on the table was put to a vote and lost.

Mr. Strudwick moved to postpone the consideration of the resolution until next Monday, which was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Phillips, the rules were suspended and the Senate bill repealing the act in relation to per diem and mileage, laws of 1869-'70, was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Rankin, the rules were suspended and the bill requiring the Governor to issue his proclamation ordering an election for Senator in the 26th Senatorial district, on the 24th of December next, was taken up and passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Powell, the rules were suspended and the Senate bill authorizing the Commissioners of Chatham county to levy a special tax and appoint a tax collector, was taken up and passed its second reading by a vote of yeas 47, nays 15.

Mr. Phillips wished a letter read from the Governor, addressed to two or three members of the House.

Mr. Sparrow objected to the reading of a private letter from the Governor addressed to individual members of this House. The Governor had no right to communicate with this House except in his official capacity. He did not object that the Governor be heard on any subject, but it was due to the House that they preserve their self respect. The letter was proper for the newspapers, and for them alone. The Governor could in this way have a hearing.

On motion, consent was given for the reading of the letter and it was accordingly read. [The letter is addressed to S. F. Phillips, Stewart Ellison, col., W. W. Morgan, col., and T. W. Young, members of the House from Wake County, and in substance is a denial of the fact that the Standard is his organ in the sense charged and denying that the article in that paper demahding and daring impeachment were authorized by him.]

By Mr. Ashe: A resolution asking our members in Congress to endeavor to procure additional appropriations for the improvement of the mouth of the Cape Fear river; referred.

By Mr. Joyner of Johnston: A bill concerning witnesses before justice's courts; referred.

On motion of Mr. Dickey, the rules were suspended, and the resolution in favor of A. S. Hill, of Cherokee, was taken and passed its several readings.

The Chairman announced the following gentlemen as a committee of seven to prepare articles of impeachment against William W. Holden, Governor of North Carolina: Messrs. Scott, Dunham, McAfee, Jordan, Gregory, Waring, and Broadfoot.

On motion of Mr. Jordan, the rules were suspended and the bill authorizing the Commissioners of Person county to levy a special tax, was taken up, [the Committee on Propositions and Grievances reporting favorably upon the bill, stating that its passage had been called for by an official communication from the Commissioners of the said county,] and passed its second reading by a vote of yeas 50, nays nays 15.

Adjourned.

In recording his vote in the affirmative on impeachment, Mr. Houston said:

As W. W. Holden has been accused by the people—by the orators—and by the press of North Carolina, of high crimes and misdemeanors in office, and he has demanded of us a trial at the bar of the Senate, saying "innocent or guilty, let us have a verdict," and as the Judiciary Committee has found abundant evidence to support the resolution of impeachment, therefore, in justice to all concerned, as the question has been presented, I feel it my duty to vote for impeachment, and so vote.

PROF. CHANDLER of New York City, in a lecture delivered by him at Cooper Institute, March 19, 1860, said:

"It is hardly necessary to enlarge upon the terrible accidents which have resulted from the use of unsafe kerosene; you have only to read the newspapers from day to day to see them. It is stated by some that these are exaggerated; that these accidents never occur, and that you and I never had a friend burned to death; still we do have an enormous number of terrible accidents from petroleum. In the last seven months of 1869 there were fifty five kerosene accidents in New York, resulting in twenty-three deaths, eighteen serious injuries and fourteen slight ones. The total result for the year 1869, for the City of New York which I myself have cut from newspapers is fifty-two fatal accidents from dangerous kerosene, fifty severe and six slight, in all 108 persons to my knowledge, from my own reading have been injured by kerosene in one year."

ALL O. K. AGAIN.—For three or four weeks we have labored under great difficulties in getting our paper out in time for the mails, and have sometimes failed, on account of having our press work done at another office in the city, (the Christian Advocate) which is so far from our office that much time was lost in transporting the forms and paper backward and forward. This was because we were obliged to take down our power press to have some repairs put on it. The work of repairing was done at the Machine Shops of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, and have been completed in most excellent style. We have got it up again now, and shall hereafter be able to do our own press work at the office, and shall therefore be free from the difficulty above alluded to.

To Mr. J. B. Gayle, the Master Machinist of the R. & G. Company, to Captain Andrews and Dr. Hawkins, we are under obligation for the favor of doing the work for us, and to Mr. Harding and others of the workmen at the Shops we are indebted for the neat and substantial manner in which the work is done. We are "right side up" now, and if no untoward accident prevents, shall hereafter get out regularly in good time.

KEEPER OF THE CAPITOL.—We are requested to announce Mr. James D. Pullen as a candidate before the General Assembly for the position of keeper of the Capitol.

Mr. Pullen is a native of Wake and has resided in Raleigh nearly all his life, and is well known to the community as thoroughly qualified to fill the place.

THE CATHOLIC FAIR, continues in the basement of St. John's Church, and excites much interest. The exhibition is very fine, and the crowds who nightly attend, especially the young gentlemen and ladies, enjoy themselves to a high degree. Our citizens who wish to spend a few hours pleasantly, as well as a few shillings for benevolent purposes, should go to the Catholic Fair.

PERSONAL.—Hon. John Kerr, of Caswell, is in the city stopping at the Yarborough House.

Col. I. J. Scales, of Greensboro, also at the Yarborough House. Both gentlemen are looking well and in good spirits.

Elizabeth City, with a population of about 2,500 souls, has a United States Senator, Congressman, Judge, Coast-Inspector, and a State Judge and two members of the Legislature.

WE direct attention to the advertisement of Mr. H. Mahler, Jeweler, Silversmith and Engraver, on Fayetteville Street. Mr. Mahler is just opening one of the finest assortments of Jewelry ever brought to this market, while he proposes to sell as rapidly as he can pack up the goods and count the money. He has made a specialty of articles suitable for Christmas presents &c., which the public, particularly young gentlemen, who are always anxious to present the fairer sex with symbolic evidences of their admiration, are requested to call and examine. His supply of symbolic jewels for the various orders is complete. He calls special attention to the large and excellent supply of plated-ware.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE.—This paper, the prospectus of which has been before the public for some time, made its first appearance yesterday.

We know something of the difficulties of getting out the "first number" of a newspaper, and are therefore prepared to say that, for a first number, the Gazette does very well.

Although it is Radical, or, as perhaps the editor would say Republican, in politics, we don't think it will "hurt things" much, because Radicalism and Republicanism, of that sort, has "played out" in North Carolina, about as fully as Judge Pearson's writs of habeas corpus had during the reign of Holden's military under Kirk and Burgin.

The Gazette is published at $3.50 per annum, advance, (as it must be with all newspapers) by A. H. Dowell, Jr., Esq.

There are some things in this first number that would bear unravelling, but as the editor is a modest young man, whose radicalism don't do much harm, so how, we will suspend criticism for the present, reserving the right and inwardly registering a vow to skin him if he sets his coulter too deep.

With the exception of political, we wish Mr. Dowell all sorts of success.

MR. JOHNSTON OF BUNCOMBE.—We understand that a false impression has gone out from some source, we know not what, that Johnson, the colored Representative from Edgecombe, introduced the Convention bill in the Legislature. This is a most preposterous idea.

It was Mr. Johnston, the young and promising member, from Buncombe, who introduced the bill for calling a convention for altering the constitution. Mr. Johnston is one of the rising men of the growing young West, now for the first time in the public councils of the State, and a man that will make his mark high, not only in the State but in the nation.

We have many quite young men in the Legislature, of great hope and promise, and it is the duty of the State to show a proper appreciation of such men and to give them encouragement to remain with us and give their native State the benefit of their talents and labors.

A SWINDLE.—A short time since an advertisement was sent to the SENTINEL, by what we have heretofore looked upon as a responsible Advertising Agency, of one "J. F. Williams & Co., Jewelers," offering for sale "Aluminum Gold Watches" for $3; warranting them to keep perfect time for one year.

A few days ago, a gentleman residing at Forestville, sent on an order with the money, for two of the watches. When he received them they were the most complete cheats we have ever seen. Nothing but brass foil, stamped in shape of a watch case, with face made of same material, and works consisting of one brass wheel, loosely attached. We advise parties never to trust to any cheap concern, it matters not where they may be, or by whom or what advertised. We will endeavor to be careful hereafter, and not admit to our columns such spurious advertisements.

Our neighbor, the "Business Manager" of the Standard, so it is said, contracted to receive pay for the insertion of the same advertisement in "trade in kind," and we also learned that the watches had come to hand. We would be glad to have "his experience" in the matter.

ALMANACS.—We have received two orders within the last two days for "Turner's North Carolina Almanac," one from Halifax county, and one from Randolph. The impression that the editor of the SENTINEL has published an Almanac is a mistake. There are two Almanacs published in this city—"Turner's North Carolina Almanac," by J. H. Ennis, and the "North Carolina Agricultural Almanac," by Jesse A. Jones. The astronomical calculations for both were made by Dr. B. Craven, of Trinity College, and the statistical matter gleaned from the most reliable sources, so that they may both be relied on; and they are nearly as good in every respect as if the editor of the SENTINEL himself had gotten them up.

Orders sent to either of the above gentlemen for Almanacs will be promptly filled. Mr. Ennis occupies the old stand of the North Carolina Book Store, formerly occupied by the venerable H. D. Turner, and publishes "Turner's Almanac," hence the mistake in regard to the publisher of the Almanac ordered by our correspondents.

STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—At a meeting of the State Agricultural Society held during the week of the last Fair, a resolution was adopted requesting the President of the Society to appoint an Executive Committee, to be so constituted as that a quorum could be easily gotten together at any time at the Capital for the transaction of important business. In accordance with the resolution and the instruction in it, the President, K. P. Battle, Esq., has appointed the following gentlemen to constitute the Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society for the present year:

T. M. Holt, Esq., of Alamance.
Capt. A. B. Andrews, of Granville.
Maj. W. A. Smith, of Alamance.
W. A. Blount, Esq., of Lenoir.
Peter E. Smith, Esq., of Halifax.
E. A. Vogler, Esq., of Forsythe.
E. B. Davidson, of Mecklenburg.
G. W. Blacknall, Esq., of Granville.
Gen. R. M. Hoke, Esq., of Wake.
B. P. Williamson, Esq., of Wake.
W. G. Upchuch, Esq., of Wake.
R. W. Wynne, Esq., of Wake.
Col. J. M. Heck, of Wake.
Prof. W. C. Kerr, of Wake.
Dr. R. B. Haywood, of Wake.

An Absolute Safeguard.

Invalids, broken down in health and spirits by Chronic Dyspepsia, or suffering from the terrible exhaustion which follows the attacks of acute disease, the testimony of thousands who have been raised as by a miracle from a similar state of prostration by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is a sure guarantee that by the same means you too may be strengthened and restored. But to those who stand in peril of epidemics, to all who, by reason of exposure, privations, and incongenial climate or unhealthy pursuits, may at any moment be stricken down, this paragraph is most particularly and emphatically addressed. You, who are thus situated, are proffered an absolute safeguard against the danger that menaces you. Tone and regulate the system with this harmless medicinal Stimulant and Alterative, and you will be forearmed against the maladies whose seeds float around you in the air unseen. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are not only a standard Tonic and Alterative throughout the United States, but they are certified by the certificates of the most distinguished citizens of the Union, to the people of all other lands. In Canada, Australia and the West Indies, they are gradually taking place of all other stomachics, whether native or foreign, and as surely as truth is progressive and demonstration overthrows doubt, they will eventually supersede every other invigorant and Restorative now employed in medicinal practice.

"THEATRICAL AND OTHER SERMONS YESTERDAY."

Every Monday's issue of the New York Herald contains the sermons delivered in the prominent Churches of that city, of Washington City, Philadelphia and Boston the Sabbath before. On last Sabbath it seems the exercises in the several Churches are somewhat varied, if we may judge from the following editorial comments in the Herald of last Monday, under the above head. The Herald's comments are sufficiently suggestive without anything additional from us.

It says:

Yesterday Brother Beecher abandoned the sombre style of delivery with which he had surprised his fashionable congregation for some weeks past, and was himself again. Perhaps he had grown alarmed at the approaching revival of the "Black Crook," and desired to give sinners a counter attraction which would wean them from the meretricious influences of that pestiferous drama. But whatever his reasons were, it is certain that his sermon was not only serio-comical in its language, but that it afforded a sublime opportunity, which was not lost, for Brother Beecher to exhibit his powers as a comedian. Individual responsibility in religious and secular affairs was the theme of the discourse. Roars of laughter attested the powers of the preacher and the joy of the congregation. And when the swagger of the Popinjay of Europe was described in pantomine the enthusiasm was immense. One pious individual encored so loudly and persistently that he had to be squelched by a volley of "sh's." Thus passed the Christian Sabbath at the Brooklyn Tabernacle. We cherish the hope that many souls were saved.

At the New England Congregational church the "Promethean sparks" of Rev. Mr. Richardson's thoughts flashed out spontaneously and brilliantly upon his hearers, illuminating their hearts with the light of salvation. The preacher illustrated self-reliance by the "eagle's nest." He held that the young eagles utter screams of distress because it was good for them"—an opinion which comes somewhat in conflict with the science of nature, though, for all we know to the contrary, it may hold good in theology. However, the idea developed was that man to be self-reliant must take the career of the eagle as an example. If not irreverent, we would suggest a qualification in the matter of preying.

THE COLORED CADET ADAMS.—The irrepressible colored cadet, J. W. Smith, at West Point, has again been heard from at the War Department, in an order to the following effect:—

Cadet J. W. Smith, having been reported for submitting an explanation containing disrespectful reflections on the conduct of the reporting officer who reported him for an offence of the 28th ult., will be confined to the area of the cadet barracks until the 1st day of February next, that he may be better impressed with the importance of adhering to the regulations of the Military Academy while he is there.

The order designating his punishment is accompanied with the following:

Cadet Smith has been at the Academy long enough to know how to obtain redress for a grievance, and had he pursued the proper course the matter would have been promptly investigated and no injustice done him.

It would appear, says the New York Herald the colored cadet has not wholly made up his mind to live in subordination to the discipline of the Academy, and dutifully presumes upon his complexion and status for certain immunities. It is nevertheless a fact that he is losing the sympathy of many who were disposed to befriend him, believing that he would have difficulties to contend with not known to the Caucasian element in that institution.

THE 15TH AMENDMENT.—We notice that Mr. Senator Pomeroy introduced in the Senate on Thursday, the sixteenth amendment to the Constitution, which is designated to establish female suffrage throughout the country. Too late, Mr. Pomeroy—inopportune as well as ungallant in your movement. The white women will not consent to enfranchisement after the African. They will vote against being allowed to vote, or they will make their husbands, brothers and sons vote against it. They will not agree to follow in the negro's wake. And if they won't, they won't; and there's the end of it.

This right of suffrage is a precious boon. But our Southern ladies, at least, are themselves too precious to be invested with it. It may do where Mr. Pomeroy lives, but none of it this way, if you please.

ESCAPED.—Eight prisoners escaped on Sunday, the 11th inst., from the Work House of Wake County. Ten dollars reward for each will be paid to any person who lodges any of the parties in any jail in the State.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Thursday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—HOUSE.—A bill appropriating $250,000 for Revenue cutters passed.

A bill was introduced directing the Secretary of the Treasury to refund penalties and taxes illegally assessed under the direct tax laws. The amnesty bill was resumed.

SENATE.—Revels (negro) introduced a resolution regarding the Mississippi River Levees.

Boutwell's resignation is the theme of conversation, but nothing is definitely known.

The President's Private Secretary, Robert Douglas, was seriously hurt to-day by being thrown from a chaise.

Information received that Philadelphia has surrendered.

Boutwell and Grant are playing at cross purposes; the San Domingo question, the Pleasonton appointment, and some other matters are the points at issue between them.—Delano is prominent as Boutwell's successor.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—Paris advices to the 10th say, the Provisional sent befitting messages into the city by carrier pigeons captured from a balloon. There is no anxiety in regard to provisions.

Bismarck is averse to recognizing the representatives of les hommes du jour—(the common people—the Republic)—and prefers Napoleon. King William wants to go home. Von Moltke laments the sufferings of the German troops from cold.

Dispatches from Cuba indicate that the insurgent chiefs are executed as soon as captured.

The Russians are rapidly concentrating near the Turkish frontier.

Trochu sent out four Prussian officers for exchange, hoping the prisoners would inform the besiegers of the favorable moral state of the city.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Flour quiet and unchanged; Wheat dull and nominally unchanged; Corn dull and drooping; Pork quiet, old mess 18½; Lard weak at 12½ to 12¾; Cotton dull and easier, Uplands 18, Orleans 18½; Spirits Turpentine dull at 46½; Rosin firm at 2,05 for strained.

Stocks steady; Gold 111¼; Money 6 to 7. Bonds 94.

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 15.—Cotton dull, Uplands 8¾, Orleans 8¾ to 8¾.

Thursday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Relations between Boutwell and the President are cordial. Pleasonton's nomination received no dissenting voice in the Cabinet.

HOUSE.—Farnsworth made a powerful speech in favor of a general amnesty.

Lawrence opposed any amnesty until those excluded gave evidence of their repentance.

Wood said that the bill was by no means an amnesty bill. Its chief objection involved many who suffered no disabilities under the constitutional amendment. Instead of being a measure of grace it was a bill to defeat justice.

Maynard argued against the principle of a universal amnesty.

Sargeant would vote for Farnsworth's substitute removing all disabilities for the following reason: That the pledge of the Republican party to remove all disabilities as soon as public safety would allow, meant what it said, and that it is "not necessary now for the public safety that these disabilities should be continued. If this substitute fails he would vote for the amendment that contains the fewest exceptions.

The discussion was continued to some length.

In the Senate several bills in regard to disabilities were passed.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Dec. 15.—The Republican State Central Committee, last night, adopted a resolution praying Congress to adopt a general amnesty bill, with but two dissenting voices.

The idea of repudiation is opposed by the Senate of Virginia; the question of West Virginia's payment of her portion of the old debt will be carried to the Supreme Court of the United States.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, December 14.—The "Independent Belge" regrets that the Prussian war reports have lost the character for veracity that was at first ascribed to them.

Dispatches from Havre report that place and Honfleurs as quiet. Thirty thousand men have been thrown out to confront the Prussians. Havre is full of war materials.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 14.—An official report says no serious engagement has taken place since the 10th.

The German Government has announced that the harbors of Havre and Dieppe are not open to neutral vessels.

The German losses in the combats with Chanzy are not less than 30,000. The country and villages are full of Prussian wounded. It is reported that the Prussians have bombarded Blois. Gambetta was there when the Prussians demanded the surrender, and ordered the defence. The bridge over the Loire was destroyed. The defence of Tours is needed to secure the safety of Chanzy who is moving towards the West, where he will be strongly reenforced and resume the offensive.

Gambetta asserts that Bourbaki's forces are in good condition.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The stringency in the money market is felt in all departments of speculation, and has produced a general depreciation in values. Early transactions were at 7 in currency; later, 7 in gold. At 3 o'clock, P. M., it was worth 1¼ to 1½ per cent. per day and 7 per cent. per annum; Sterling 9½; Gold 109¾ to 109¾; Governments dull; Southerns very dull all day; Tenns. strong at 61¾, new 61; N. Cs. weak at 45, new 21.

Cotton weak and quiet, sales 2,500 bales at 15; Flour inactive; Whisky 93 to 94; Wheat inactive; Corn closed quiet, old 80, new 69 to 76; Pork nominal, old 21, new 19½; Lard heavy, kettle 13½ to 13; Spirits Turpentine 46½; Rosin firm.

THE

WIDOWS AND ORPHANS

BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
OF NEW YORK.
Cash Assets over $1,500,000,

ISSUES ALL FORMS OF NON FORFEITABLE, WHOLE LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES, on the Mutual Cash Plan, declaring dividends annually after the first annual premium paid. Assets exclusively Cash, with no portion of its reserve fund in premiums notes, consequently its "reserve" is stronger than that of any company doing business in this State. No "definite surrender values guaranteed" as an inducement to new business, but reference is made to the average amount paid on each surrendered policy, as shown by the New York Insurance Reports, 1869, as evidence of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a minimum "Definite Cash Surrender Value." Death losses have not occurred out of several hundred policy holders in this State, which fact must establish the better ability of the Company to pay larger dividends than companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. "Fictitious Dividends are not declared, but dividends are given from the actual surplus, in accordance with the Company's charter. The attention of the public is invited to the following comparison of cost, demonstrating the advantages over ordinary insurances, of the POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES.

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks, upon which elements of administration the security of a Life insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

2. None of this is made up of Promissory Notes, as in many Companies.
3. Its Cash income per annum is over $6,500,000 00, and steadily growing larger.

5. It has paid to Widows and Orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4,000,000 00.
6. Such payments are made in Cash, and not partly in Cancelled Notes, as is the case in many Companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a Policy, for Premium Notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $3,500,000 00, and upwards, in cash divided among Policy-Holders, (this included the dividend for the present year,) as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the Stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available, as case in payment of Premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start, and not postponed until the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made More progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the World.

17. The amount of new business during the year, ending December 1, 1869, was $51,021,041.
18. Its Policies average larger in amount than those of any other Company, showing that Capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many Companies.
20. It is conservative in the conduct of its business as is consistent with the safety of the assured, and does not sacrifice present comfort to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business, as is the case with many new Companies.
21. It is the favorite Company in the United States, as is shown by its new business last year, being nearer $30,000,000 greater than any other Company.
